

SES
REWARDS & RECOGNITION
May 2024

Winner: Ramesh Vasashali

Ramesh was nominated by the Site Security Team at Freemason's Hall, London multiple times throughout 2024.

"We would like to take a moment to recognise the exceptional contributions of our colleague, Ramesh. His dedication and work ethic are truly commendable. Ramesh has consistently demonstrated his commitment to excellence by being punctual, reliable, and always willing to lend a helping hand.

His proactive approach in completing check calls and providing regular updates is a testament to his professionalism. Ramesh's attention to detail and his ability to stay on top of his responsibilities make him a valuable asset to SES.

Moreover, Ramesh's adherence to the dress code and his diligence in reporting all incidents promptly ensure that our operations run smoothly and efficiently.

We, the Security Supervisors, unanimously agree that Ramesh's performance sets a high standard. His contributions do not go unnoticed, and we are proud to have him as part of our team."

SES Senior Management then wrote:

"I can echo the clients words; Ramesh has been with us since the TUPE of the contract last year and has shown exceptional support during that process and beyond, always working to ensure a fantastic delivery of service and from my personal experience always ensuring I am kept abreast of site matters.

Would be a great opportunity to express that appreciation by entering for the R&R."

Ramesh is highly commended for his professionalism and outstanding customer service.
